Street Beat Preview: Preventing Student Sports Injuries

This week on Street Beat, WWJ Newsradio 950 Health Reporter Sean Lee looks at the preparing your student-athlete from the school sports season.

First, Sean talks with Beaumont Health System concussion specialist Dr. Dan Michael about increased efforts to prevent, recognize and treat head injuries.

Then, Beaumont Health System orthopedic specialist Dr. Robert Kohen talks about complications with fractures and breaks. Next, Sean addresses the psychological demands of playing sports with Beaumont Health System psychiatrist Dr. Howard Belkin.

Finally, Beaumont pediatric cardiologist Dr. Nancy Cutler talks about heart health.

Watch Street Beat – Saturdays at 8:30am on CW50!
